Survey

Let's take a closer look at the responses from U.S. teens...

51% of teens surveyed self-identified as Christian.

However, only 8% display the beliefs and habits of a Christian who holds the core beliefs of Christianity and have a regular habit of Bible reading and prayer.

2 out of every 5 teens in the U.S. claim no religion

However,

Most unchurched teens are open to attending church if someone invited them.

67% said they would be interested in attending or they would consider it.

35% of teens in the U.S. reported having suicidal thoughts in the past 3 months.

This is the highest rate in the world across the 20 countries we surveyed.

Engaging with a Church community contributes to a more positive outlook on life

In the past three months, I have experienced:

Christian teens are more sexually active than non-Christian teens

96% of teens watch
videos everyday.
